

In the Meadow With Quack and Daisy

A meadow is a piece of grassy land with other wild plants such as flowers. Meadows are commonly used by farmers for hay. Quack and Daisy meet in the meadow and find it a wonderful place to explore. In the blanks below, write five things Quack and Daisy discovered when exploring the meadow.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

A meadow is a piece of grassy land with other wild plants such as flowers. Meadows are commonly used by farmers for hay. Quack and Daisy meet in the meadow and find it a wonderful place to explore. In the blanks below, write five things Quack and Daisy discovered when exploring the meadow.

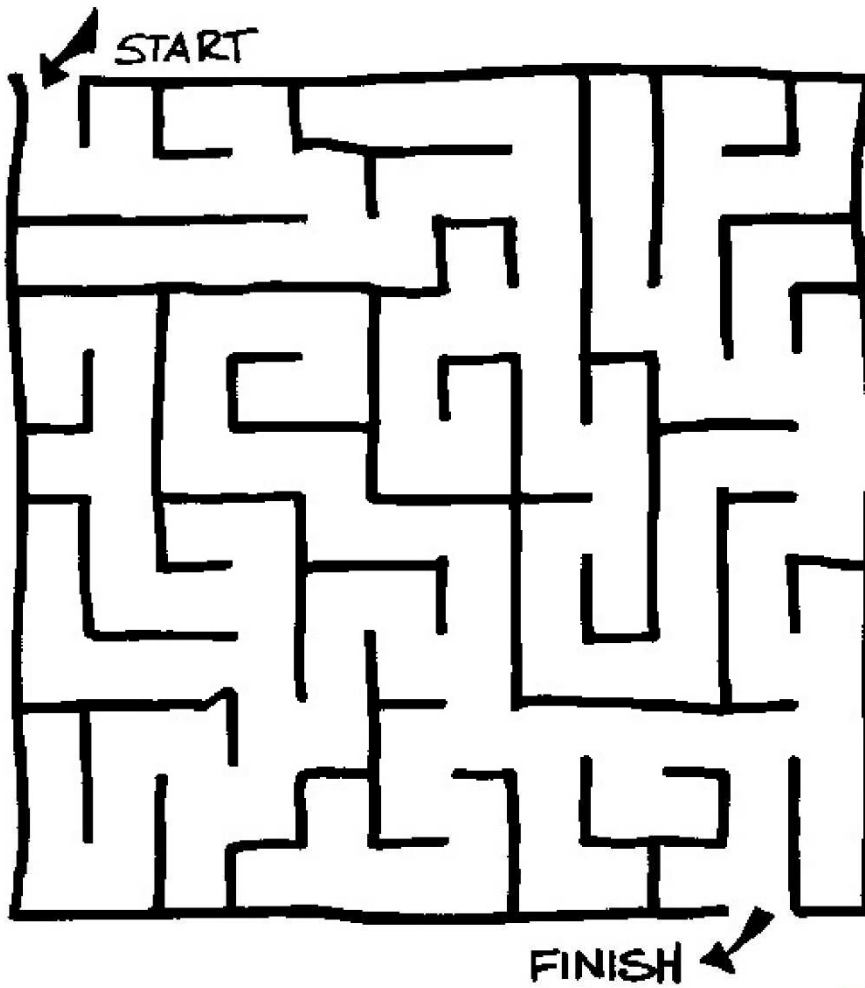

1. Friendship
2. Butterflies
3. Flowers
4. Tall Grass
5. Beetles

Answers Key: Answers may vary

Meadow Maze

Quack is on the other side of the meadow.
Can you help her find her way back to Daisy?

Friends can be different. Friends can have different skin color, eye color, and hair color. Friends can live in different size houses, can have different pets, and can like different foods. Friends can also be the same. Friends can like the same things like math or spelling. Friends can like to read or swing outside together. Quack and Daisy are similar and different. In the boxes below, put an S if you think they are the same and a D if you think they are different.

Fur and Feathers

Curious and Excited

Swimmer and Mouse Catcher

Children and Explorers